AUSA Ramos

Dear Judge Ross:

I am attorney for Lloyd McKend who is scheduled to be sentenced by Your Honor on August 30, 2005.

With the consent of AUSA Michael Ramos, I am respectfully requesting an adjournment of the sentencing until either November 1, November 2 or November 3.

Mr. McKend is expecting the birth of a child within days and would like to have this period of time to spend with his newborn. In addition, I am awaiting a response from the Probation Officer regarding my objections and corrections to the Presentence Report. Further, I am preparing for a trial which is to commence on September 7, 2005 in Federal Court, Central Islip.

Defendants.

ROSS, United States District Judge:

In order to facilitate sentencing, the court must have received and assessed the submissions from the government and the defendants, with respect to each defendant, before it will sentence any defendant. All Pre-Sentence Reports not yet available will be distributed during the week of August 22, 2005. The court thus directs that each defendant submit objections to his Pre-Sentence Report by September 9, 2005. The government must submit its response to the objections of each defendant and all of its letters pursuant to 5K1.1 within two
